SKYROCKETS WOULDN'T BE IN IT

With the flight prices would take if it were not for Benheimers' wideawake, progressive and popular methods. We set the pace in low price making and all competitors try to imitate—but while they do occasionally quote the same price—none match our values in wearable quality—choice styles—unequaled workmanship and artistic finish. This is no dream—a story told in type—but an everyday, non-disputable fact, and here are proofs so conclusive that
